

Connecting with Kiwi Culture

Are you a migrant, new to Rotorua and considering your options for 2012?

This workshop is to support you in developing your knowledge and skills, so you can meet your goals for adjustment to life in New Zealand

Fri, 9 March 2012, 8.45am – 3.30pm
Rotorua Arts Village, 1240 Hinemaru St

Topics include:

- How is New Zealand different
- Stages of culture shock and change
- Creating a new life
- Networking
- Keys to success
- Using your skills
- Values and goals for the future

The programme is presented by a trained "Connecting with Kiwi Culture facilitator and hosted and supported by your local Settlement Support Co-ordinator.

Everyone who attends receives a resource pack.

Morning tea and lunch are provided

Registrations are limited to 16 people.

Confirm your attendance by, contacting
Heather McAllister, Settlement Support Co-ordinator
Tel: 07 351 7054,
Email: ssnzrotorua@rdc.govt.nz

Supported by: